

Toa Toa House

Caribbean/Mexico - British Virgin Islands - Tortola

4 to 8 persons – pool – service 1 x per week – no children under 8 years

1 living room with tv, video, HIFI, bar – 1 kitchen with dishwasher and barbecue – 1 billiard room – 1 dining room – 4 double bedrooms each with bathroom/tub, mini fridge and separate terrace – large sun terrace

Unforgettable blue ocean views with a lovely sunset each evening are yours at this impressive property. A road winds up into the breezy, green hills of Tortola's south coast to this stunning villa and to one of the island's most magnificent seascapes. Toa-Toa is built as five pavilions arranged around the dramatic pool set in a sunny deck. Three pavilions border the pool deck: the central Great Room offers a convenient wet bar, all media, and two very plush overstuffed sofas for lounging; eclectic teak pieces and a variety of accessories gathered from world travels accent this living area. One of Toa-Toa's four king master bedroom/bath suites - this one with air-conditioning, an indoor/outdoor garden shower and a romantic four-poster bed - is situated directly above the Great Room. On one end of the pool deck is the alfresco dining area in a shady lanai; it adjoins a country-style kitchen, with a billiard room just next door. At the opposite end is the third pavilion with a second air-conditioned king suite; the third and fourth king bedroom suites are in two additional pavilions (one above, which is air-conditioned, and one below), both easily accessible by steps from the pool deck.

All four bedrooms are very spacious and well separated for serene privacy, and each offers its own individual mini-fridge, coffeemaker and a private covered balcony. Toa-Toa House is a serene and harmonious aerie kissed by cooling tradewinds and perched between vast sky and blue ocean, a perfect hideaway for reading and relaxing,
