Entering the enormous living/dining room of Villa Jura, striking features abound. First of course are the tall windows covering nearly every side of the room, with dazzling views in all directions. Next is the sleek starkness of the decor. Modern, yet comfortable furniture is plentiful, a tall fireplace centred between the immense expanse of windows makes an incomparable design. Glass doors lead to a teak terrace which runs the full length of the house and allows spacious areas for outdoor dining or sunning. Shelves and walls are covered with authentic art objects and oriental antiques. The black painted stone floor, combined with the light and space of the room, give an impression of the outdoors. From the living room area is an open plan kitchen with an Indian antique painted cupboard serving as an island in the large room. The same huge windows allow for plenty of light and a feel as if you are cooking outside. The modern appliances, such as built-in oven, dishwasher, microwave oven and fridge, are stainless steel and of top quality.

The mix of modern and antique blend contribute to this holiday home`s unique style. From the kitchen is a small alcove with a w/c shower room. Down the hallway are two bedrooms, both with double beds and one with en-suite w/c shower room. Carried through are the identical vast windows with their unmatched views of clear blue sea and Greek blue sky. There are doors from each bedroom which lead to the front teak terrace with small dividing walls for privacy. Here you can sit for hours enjoying the nature and quiet of this special place. At the end of the hallway is another w/c shower room. Situated below the main villa and reached via a stone stairway, there are two double bedrooms, each with ensuite shower/WC. They have a large patio with plenty of space for outdoor living and enjoy the same impressive views as the upper level. The rooms are connected by a door which can be left open or shut, depending on the guests' wishes. They are tastefully decorated in the same modern, yet comfortable style as the main villa. Shops and tavernas can be found in Steni Vala, which is only five minutes drive away from the holiday house. Villa Jura's architecture is exceptional and thus suits very well for guests with high expectations.
