Patatiri. This is one of the most picturesque villages of Alonissos, with its local tavernas offering freshly caught sea food and some very pretty beaches close at hand. A foot path descends through the trees at the front of the house, to a small beach next to the Steni Vala port, a walk of approximately 4 minutes. It is also possible to walk to the nearby Glyfa beach. Along with the tavernas, there are a couple of supermarkets and along the port, you can find caiques departing for the beautiful beach at Aghios Dimitrios. The village is also serviced by local bus and taxi. A hired boat can be moored here to give easy access to the rest of the islands beaches. Meltemi house is great for couples, singles traveling together or families. Its proximity to Steni Vala with its amenities and the surrounding beaches make it ideal for those wanting a quiet, private getaway with splendid scenery and the serenity of the Greek nature.
