Villas: from 2 to 8 persons per villa

Costa dei Gabbiani, the „coast of the silver gulls“, is a green and unspoiled plateau (218 m) at the southeast end of the island Elba. The holiday village is situated in the centre of this plateau. Approximately 450 hectares of forest cover the slopes down to the sea, where guests of Costa dei Gabbiani can enjoy private beaches. The coastline covers 12 km, where small beaches and bays alternate with steeply rocks. The holiday village offers a variety of accommodation: the ancient master villa, tastefully adapted to a small hotel; apartments that are placed in the farm houses „Fattorias“ as well as small villas, amongst the pines forests, facing the sea. All villas are furnished very tastefully.

Due to the nice interior and the functional equipment the holiday homes are very comfortable. Guests have access to the sea on private paths. A small supermarket and a restaurant in the village provide the welfare of the guests. A wide range of sports activities are offered: 3 tennis courts, 1 pool, horse riding, mountain bike rental, table tennis, diving courses, sailing, windsurfing and training course for golf. A baby club hosts the children (from June until mid September), while parents enjoy their activities or relax. Rates from 114 EUR/day.
