Palazzo Belmonte

Italy - Campania - Paestum - Castellabate

52 suites/apartments for 2 to 4 persons each, some with balcony/terrace – 5 ha garden – shared pool with pool bar – private hotel beach – restaurant – tennis court – massage

This idyllic palace from the 17th century lies in Campania's south, within the borders of the National Park Cilento, and has been transformed into a luxurious hotel. Numerous pieces of art and antiques make alive this residence's history. Palazzo Belmonte is the perfect blend between old tradition and modern comfort. The property consists of three buildings. The historical palace comprises 22 suites, which all have a living room, some of them a balcony, and offer beautiful views of Santa Maria, of the garden or of the sea. The romantic courtyards of the palace take you back to the times when the Prince of Belmonte lived here. Casa Eduardo is an architectural masterpiece from the 17th century. The bright rooms with their luxurious furnishings dispose of a balcony and partly also have seaview. Each suite has its individual, romantic charm - a perfect place for honeymooners.

Villa Belmonte lies aside from the main building amidst the beautiful garden. It hosts 30 modern, elegant double bedrooms, which can be connected to each other. The furniture is held in a Mediterranean style. Also from here, one can enjoy marvellous views of the sea. All accommodations in Hotel Palazzo Belmonte dispose of air condition, minibar, safe, telephone and internet access. There is also a restaurant, where fish, seafood, Italian and international specialities are served on a beautiful terrace. The large pool with cocktail bar and sunbeds lies in the middle of a lush garden which passes directly into the sandy beach. The village of Santa Maria di Castellabate can be reached in five minutes by foot. The next town, Agropoli, is approximately 10 km away. Rates from 141 EUR/day
