Amongst vineyards and surrounded by pure nature one will enjoy great holidays at Finca de la Salud. With its own spring and the solar panels for electricity the house is a self-sufficient home and unaffiliated to the public network. The 50,000 sqm property hosts the main building, a separate sauna house with a massage and therapy room and a casita, where an office with internet access is located. Each of the five bedrooms on the first floor has ensuite facilities and offer access to a large sun terrace with lounge chairs. The doors of the spacious double bedroom on the ground floor open up to the garden. The caretaker couple lives in a secluded wing of the building and takes care of the building services, the garden and the pool and tends touchingly to the well-being of the guests.

On demand and at supplemental cost, a reflexology or a full body massage can be booked on site. They also offer Shiatsu, lymph drainage as well as Qi-Gong and yoga. With all this one can indulge both body and soul at Finca de la Salud. Various terraces and cosy spots offer places to relax and unwind in either sun or shade. There are sunloungers and parasols right by the pool, which is, with a size of 8 x 12 meters, quite large. Due to its bounty and the quiet location
