Villa Castellina

Spain - Costa del Sol - Benahavis/Marbella

The villa was elaborately furnished in Mediterranean style and was lovingly decorated. All rooms are very spacious and ceiling-high windows bring out the commodious character. Valuable carpets and selected antiques top off superior standard. Three of the bedrooms have sea view; the bedroom in the basement views to the beautiful planted courtyard with a spring fountain, which invites to relax. A custodian couple is on hand thrice a week to maintain the house. On request and supplemental cost daily service can be arranged. Using the facilities of the urbanisation is strictly restricted to the inhabitants, and tenants at Villa Castellina enjoy the privilege of being highly welcome guests. The nearest restaurant is located at the Club House. Many others are found in the nearby towns of Marbella, Puerto Banous and in Ronda.
