Greece - Cyclades - Paros - Naoussa

6 persons – 180 sqm – garden 400 sqm – pool – air condition

1 living/dining room with fireplace – 1 well equipped kitchen with washing mashine and dishwasher – 1 double bedroom – 2 twin bedrooms – 2 bathrooms, each with shower 1 bathroom with tub – terraces – sun deck

This charming holiday home is set in the historic center of the little pedestrian fishing village of Naoussa. The house was built 400 years ago and was totally restored according to the traditional standards in such a way that it was featuring in the Greek magazine "Ideas & solutions" as on of the best restored houses in 2007. It is a perfect home away from home for those who on one hand like to be in center location and on the other hand appreciate the privacy of an independent house with a well kept garden and a private 11 X 5 pool.

Guests here hardly use their rental car. It is just two minutes walking to the picturesque harbor, were tavernas offer fresh fish and seafood. Also many bars, art-work-shops, boutiques are within walking distance. The nearby beach Agios Dimitrios is only 50 m away. The garden, full of bouganvilles and geraniums has a sunny and a covered terrace, both with teak furniture. Stairs lead to a sun deck and on top of the roof, where one can enjoy spectacular views.
