Greece - Ionian Islands - Zakynthos - Alikanas

4 persons – telephone – balcony and terrace – air condition

1 double bedroom with balcony – 1 bathroom/tub – 1 kitchen – 1 living room with 2 sof beds and terrace

Spiti Paradiso consists of two houses and lies just above Amoudi Beach, which is ideal for families with children. The vacation property is situated about 30 m away from neighbouring Spiti Calypso. From the spacious terraces, which rest on the rocks overlooking the sea, one has a breathtaking view of the beach, the sea and in fine weather as far as the island of Kefalonia. One of the buildings is divided into the two apartments Alexandros and Antonia, both with large terraces and fantastic views. Villa Margarita is located in the other one of the two-storey houses. The houses are functionally furnished in Greek style. The special feature of these holiday homes is their unique location directly above the sea, so that you almost feel as though you are on the deck of a ship. Divers and fishermen will also find plenty to do here.
