Il Faro is a stately vacation villa built in the 1930s. It is located 300 m from a small lagoon, in which there are several oyster farms, and is surrounded by a lush garden. Although a street runs at the edge of the property, one will find a comfortable, relaxing privacy here. For those who wish to indulge themselves, there is the possibility for a hairdresser or a masseur to come to the villa. Private cooking lessons will make guests discover the secrets of Sicilian cuisine.

The pool (5 x 12 m) with sunloungers and sunshades, a large table with chairs, ping-pong, barbecue and a shower are located in the well-tended garden. Throughout the whole garden, there are seating areas, so that one will find a quiet, shady place at every time of the day. The villa is well-equipped, mainly in Sicilian style. The bright living room has two glass doors providing access to the garden. Parking spaces are available on the property. Shops and restaurants are within easy walking distance.
