Katitche Point Greathouse is a secluded, small holiday village in its own right and includes the main house in pyramid shape, four large suites, and an additional, even more spacious master bedroom. Each unit has an ensuite bathroom and a private verandah with breathtaking sea views. The pyramid-shaped main house, visible from far offshore, is eleven meters (34`) high and offers space for social gatherings as well as reclusion on three levels. The lowest level features a superbly decorated living area with comfortable English couches, teak dining table seating up to 14 people, BOSE stereo system with an extensive CD collection, and a professional kitchen meeting the most exacting standards.

Outdoor living and dining verandahs surround the interior areas of this beautiful holiday home. A staircase leads to the gallery on the second floor with a library, wide-screen TV, and four comfortable loungers which can be made into additional beds. Guests will find the gallery a special place to relax, play games, and watch videos. A steep steel ladder allows access to the very highest point of the villa and you will find the "Crow`s Nest" at the top of the pyramid on the third level, an ideal vantage point to observe the star-studded night sky. Big pillows are scattered here and there on the Persian carpet; a hammock allows for private and peaceful escape. Wide verandahs surround the main house and provide clusters of gathering areas.
