Fincahotel Son Pons dates back to the 13th century. In 1999 it was lovingly and tastefully restored with respect of the ancient structure and architecture. The sophisticated architect has created lots of harmony between the old building and the new artificial elements. A stunning ambience welcomes the guests. The large patio is the center of the vacation property. The connecting well kept garden offers many quiet places to relax.

The other rooms are located in the main house, where the owner has her private rooms. Breakfast is being made by her and served in the garden or the spacious salon. On additional costs she can arrange for dinner twice or trice a week; there is a Mallorquin cook supporting her then. Distance to Palma de Mallorca is appr. 35 km (1/2 hour by car).
