Situated amidst the Chianti hills, upon a rise overlooking valleys which are rich in history, is the Castellare de Sernigi. The holiday villa, situated in the thousand year old hamlet of Palazzuolo, surrounded by a park containing olives, roses and mediterranean herb plants, has a large swimming pool (mt 15x7) and also courtyards which can be enjoyed in fine weather. The beautiful countryside encourages trekking and mountain biking along many varied routes.

Mountain bikes are provided for use. Furnished with antique furniture, the holiday home offers large sitting rooms with a hundred year old fireplace, a very large and completely equipped kitchen and a big service area. Each bedroom has its own bathroom ensuite. A modern central heating system enables comfortable living in early and late season. Wine, olive oil and other local products may be purchased through the owners. Tennis courts and a horse riding centre are located within a short distance of the villa.
