These delightful villas are situated on a hillside in Grenada, amidst the tropical trees of a hidden garden. Every villa is oriented to have sea views whilst also being set amidst lush gardens, planted for maximum privacy and delight. The garden's tropical flowers and fruit trees attract butterflies, hummingbirds, bananaquits, white egrets and the occasional hawk. The two acres of hillside land on which the Grenada Dream holiday resort sits comprises of 5 two-bedroom villas with a sleeping capacity of 4 persons and 2 one-bedroom villas with a sleeping capacity of 2 persons. From the villa's decks the Aquarium Restaurant and bar on the beach is one minutes' walk away. All villas are artistically decorated and all unique, with enchanting murals and hidden delights for the eye to slowly reveal. The fully landscaped tropical garden has an infinity-edge swimming pool overlooking the beach and a central rock waterfall feature with a terrapin pond. Sunbeds and kayaks are available at the beach, beach towels can be found in the villa.

The two-bedroom villas are very spacious and designed for maximum comfort and privacy inside and outside. The interior of all houses is very elegant and provides all kind of amenities one can expect. There
